GIANTS SIGN NEW CONTRACTS

SIX HAVE ALREADY AGREED TO PLAY NEXT YEAR.

New Yorkers Were Given a Double Beating in St. Louis Yesterday.

With the end of the National League season only a few days off, the management of the New York baseball club is beginning to figure out what kind of a team it will have for the coming year.

To date the club has secured the signed contracts of six of its players. They are Gansel, Smith, Jones, Murphy, van Halten and Strang.

Two of these men promise to develop into wonderful players next year, as they are playing during the short time they have been with the team warrants. The players are Smith, the new second baseman, and Jimmy Jones, the fast outfielder.

Both have more than "made good." Smith has been covering second base in a way that it should have been all year, and Jones has been putting up a marvellous game in right field and also hitting the ball hard.

Mathewson, Taylor, and McGee will surely be signed, for they have already signed their intentions of playing with the team another season.

The team reached St. Louis from Chicago yesterday morning, and in the afternoon were beaten twice by the St. Louis club. The two teams will play again to-day.

SULLIVAN AND BROAD TO-NIGHT

FEATHER-WEIGHTS TO FIGHT 20 ROUNDS AT LOUISVILLE.

Both in Good Shape for Their Fourth Meeting in the Ropes Square.

Dave Sullivan, the little fighting Irishman, and "Kid" Broad, of Cleveland, will meet in a twenty-round bout before the Southern A. C. of Louisville, to-night. They are to battle at 170 pounds, weigh in at 3 o'clock this afternoon. This will be the fourth time the little fellows have met, for other battles were in Louisville. Both are in splendid shape and fit to furnish a good fight. Sullivan has been much better than he did in his bouts with "Young Corbett," Hugh McFadden and Billy Gardner, and will be looking for a Sullivan-Tim Hurst will referee the battle.

GANS FIGHTS TO-NIGHT.

Will Meet Joe Handler in Twenty-Round Bout at Trenton.

Joe Gans, the colored lightweight of Baltimore, and Joe Handler, of Newark, will meet in a twenty-round bout before the Trenton A. C. for a purse and a side bet of $500, which is the first side bet made on such a result in a few years.

The contest has aroused considerable interest among the sporting men throughout New Jersey and Baltimore, and a large crowd is expected to be on hand to witness the battle. There will likely be considerable betting on the result of the fight, for both men's admirers are confident their favorite will win. Gans is the favorite now at odds of 2 to 1.
